

Genomics teams up with UK biotech firm

2011/02/24

MALAYSIAN Genomics Resource Centre Bhd has partnered UK-based John Innes Enterprises Ltd to help realise the potential of Malaysia's rich biodiversity. The pact will provide direct access for scientists from Malaysian universities and organisations to work with both firms in the field of functional genomics. John Innes Enterprises is the trading subsidiary of John Innes Centre UK which carries out fundamental and strategic research on plants and microbes.
